Chronicles from a Captive

We will Rise no Higher than our concept of God

"I am my beloved's and His desire is for me"

Song of Solomon 7:10

One of my favorite books is "The Knowledge of The Holy" by A.W. Tozer. The book describes the different characteristics of God. I highly recommend it, but beware it will challenge your understanding of truth! If you are wise you will rise to the challenge. The Bible says, "a fool is wise in His own eyes!"

The message of the book is this, we will rise no higher than our concept of God. How do you see God? Is He the big judge in the sky who watches every thing you do? Is He the big cosmic Santa Claus that you go to when you need something? Maybe your not sure He's real or if He is He has more important things to do than worry about you. I hope you have a personal relationship with Jesus Christ and have found the truth.

But unfortunately to many religion is just a belief system handed down from parents. It's ok but not very relevant. What ever your opinion, it really doesn't matter much. The only thing that matters is the truth. Your success in life depends on you knowing the truth and fulfilling God's purpose for your life. Don't settle for opinion. Please don't make the fatal mistake of thinking that God thinks the way that we do!! It always amazes me to hear someone say, "Well I believe God is… or I don't believe God would…" I can say I believe Disney world is in North Carolina and believe it with my whole heart. The humanistic world we live in would say back, "Your entitled to your opinion'. But none of that changes the fact that Disney World is in Florida!! Opinion means nothing if the truth differs from it!!

Contrary to popular opinion there are absolute truths in life. We don't get to make up our own God and how we involve Him in our lives. You might be thinking, "Isn't all this just your opinion or belief? That really is the question that changes everything in our lives. If you want to know the truth rather than hang on to a comfortable opinion that could cost you everything than ask that Question of God not me!!

If you seek God with all your heart you will find Him. You could just call me arrogant for thinking that my "opinion" is the right one but then again is it just my opinion? You can know for sure if your willing to humble yourself and submit to God.
